3. Story

- When Sherwyne was in high school, he became so attracted to video games that he neglected my responsibilities as a student. His grades were quite low, putting him in a difficult scenario where he could have to take a summer class, but happily, he survived that year. He promised himself that he would do his studies before playing video games.
 - Superpower: Digital Innovator - The knack for envisioning and implementing groundbreaking digital solutions.
- There was one time when Rov was browsing the internet, Facebook, and watching TikTok videos. He was enjoying every piece of content that he sees that he didn't notice the time and he was already late for his class. Unluckily the instructor also gave a surprise quiz that time and he failed his midterm grade.
 - Superpower: Tech Telepath - The power to understand and communicate with various technologies effortlessly.
- Enrico sat at his desk in a busy classroom, surrounded by textbooks and tasks. His gaze was drawn elsewhere, to the flashing screen of his smartphone. Notifications drew him deeper into the digital realm. Enrico's thoughts wandered as his peers focused on the lesson. Assignments got unfinished, grades deteriorated, and opportunities passed him by. Enrico didn't grasp the cost of his distraction until his teacher yelled his name, jolting him back to reality.
 - Superpower: Bug Whisperer – A talent for finding and fixing software bugs and glitches with exceptional ease and speed.
